

Nicolas Hafner

Swiss National Science Foundation Doc.CH Researcher
Department of International History and Politics
Geneva Graduate Institute
Chemin Eugène-Rigot
2 CH-1202 Genève
nicolas.hafner@graduateinstitute.ch

ORCID-ID: 0000-0002-7546-7372

EDUCATION

2022-current	PhD student in the Department of International History and Politics , Geneva Graduate Institute, PhD Affiliate at the Gender Centre PhD thesis ' Le Savoir et le Faire ': Decolonisation and Geneva as a Third World Development Studies Hub, c. 1961-1981 (working title), under the supervision of professors Cyrus Schayegh, Nicole Bourbonnais (co-supervisors) and Adom Getachew (external advisor)
2022	Master in International History and Politics , Geneva Graduate Institute Master thesis on the corporate origins of the private foreign investment protection regime in international law, supervised by Prof. Cyrus Schayegh
2019	Master in Public Management and Policy , University of Bern, uncompleted
2015	Bachelor of Arts in History, Public Law, and Political Science , University of Zurich
2014	Exchange semester at the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium

EMPLOYMENT AND FELLOWSHIPS

9/2023-current	Swiss National Science Foundation Doc.CH Researcher Grant number 218930; expected completion: September 2026
2022-23	Interim Executive Secretary (part-time), Swiss Malaria Group
2017-2020	Part-time consultant , Farnet Consulting SA
2017	PR Officer , Sumatran Orangutan Conservation Programme, Medan, Indonesia
2016	Mandatory «service civile» , reconstructing dry stone walls
2015	Intern at the Delegation of the European Union to Switzerland and Liechtenstein
2014-2018	Freelance journalist (Zürcher Oberländer , unihockey.ch)

RESEARCH GRANTS AND AWARDS

2025	SNSF mobility in projects grant	CHF 18'200.-
2023	SNSF Doc.CH scholarship	CHF 213'898.-
2022	Geneva Graduate Institute full PhD scholarship package
2022	Prix Arditi en relations internationales (best master's dissertation in international studies or international affairs)	CHF 5'000.-

PUBLICATIONS

Peer-reviewed Articles

"What Investors Want from Whom: International Economic Institutions and The International Association for the Promotion and the Protection of Private Foreign Investments (APPI) 1958-1974" (together with Dr Filip Batselé, Ghent University, Business and Politics, <https://doi.org/10.1017/bap.2024.20>)

“An Island of the Third World?” Decolonization, Solidarity and the Critique of Development During the Long Sixties at the Geneva Africa Institute,” working paper submitted to a special issue in The Global Sixties on “Cold War internationalisms of/in the Decolonizing World.”

Other Academic Writing

“The Geneva Graduate Institute and the Training of Diplomats in the Context of Decolonisation,” Global Challenges 17 (May 2025), written together with Dr Charlotte Roy, <https://globalchallenges.ch/issue/17/the-geneva-graduate-institute-and-the-training-of-diplomats-in-the-context-of-decolonisation/>

“Remeasuring Self and Society after Empire: The Human Sciences in Decolonization,” conference report written together with Devarya Srivastava.

“Channel Surplus Oil Funds in the Right Directions:’ The International Association for the Promotion and Protection of Private Foreign Investments (APPI)’s Overture to the Middle East in the 1970s,” contribution to the digital source collection Global Histories of the Twentieth-Century Middle East and North Africa (GIMENA), housed at the Wilson Center Digital Archive.

ORGANIZATION OF SCIENTIFIC MEETINGS

Co-organizer of a workshop series entitled “Decolonization” Now : Histories, Politics, Possibilities, together with Atwa Jaber and Devarya Srivastava, with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation, the Department of International History and Politics and the Center for Digital Humanities and Multilateralism, hosted at the Geneva Graduate Institute.

First workshop (15 participants) on Counter-Archiving Decolonisation: Methods, Modes, Narratives hosted on 11 & 12 November 2024.

Second workshop (20 participants) on Decolonization and its Forms of Knowledges: Histories, Pedagogies, Methods, & Praxis hosted on 12 & 13 May 2025.

Third and forth workshops planned for 2026, on The Promise(s) of Decolonization (Practice, Progress, Dreaming) and The Aesthetics of Decolonization (Imagining, Relating, Sensing).

SELECT RECENT INVITED LECTURES AND CONFERENCE PAPERS

“Challenging Development: The Evolution of Critical Thought at the Geneva Africa Institute (1961–1986),” 27th International Congress of History of Science & Technology, Dunedin, New Zealand (attended online), 29 June 5 July 2025

“An Island of the Third World?” Decolonization, Solidarity and the Critique of Development During the Long Sixties at the Geneva Africa Institute,” Intellectual Exchanges Between Revolutionary Africa and the Third World (1950-1990), The Africa Centre, London, 9 & 10 June 2025

“Development as Education? Consciousness-raising, Political Struggle and the Third World. A Perspective from Geneva,” Decolonisation and its Forms of Knowledge: Histories, Pedagogies, Methods & Praxis, Geneva Graduate Institute, 12 & 13 May 2025.

“An Island of the Third World?” The Geneva Africa Institute and the Swiss Development Cooperation in the 1960s,” ColLab History Seminar, Université de Lausanne, 2 December 2024

“The Geneva Africa Institute: Decolonisation, Third World Solidarity and an Early Critique of Development During the Long Sixties,” Historical Challenges to International Development, King’s College London, 12 & 13 September 2024

“The Geneva Africa Institute: Decolonization, Third World Solidarity and an Early Critique of Development During the Long Sixties,” Cold War Internationalisms of/in the Decolonized World, Geneva Graduate Institute, 5 & 6 June 2024

“Decolonisation and Geneva as a Third World Development Studies Hub, c. 1961-1981,” Gender Centre Workshop, Geneva Graduate Institute, 28 & 29 February 2024

“Internationale Investorenrechte: der Schutz von ausländischen Privatinvestitionen, Dekolonisierung und die APPI,” colloquium by the Gesellschaft für Unternehmensgeschichte (GUG) (Business History Society), Ergo Group AG, Düsseldorf, 1 December 2023

“Le Savoir et le Faire: Decolonisation and Geneva as a Third World Development Studies Hub, c. 1961-1981,” invited guest lecture for the course History and Development taught by Prof Amalia Ribic-Forclaz, Geneva Graduate Institute, 27 April 2023

“Safeguarding Foreign Investments Within the Framework of International Law: The Case of the French Mining and Petroleum Companies in the 1950s,” Global Corporations and International Law, Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge, 15 & 16 December 2022

“Post-Developmentalism avant la lettre? The Critique of Development at the Geneva Africa Institute (IED) 1961-1975,” History Brunch Series at the Department of International History and Politics, Geneva Graduate Institute, 11 November 2021

LANGUAGES

German	native
English	proficient, IELTS Academic Training Band Score 8.5, taken December 2017
French	very good, DELF B2 (refresher summer course at UniGe, level C1, 2021)
Persian	intermediate (a total of 9 months language stay in Tehran, 2016 and 2018)
Spanish	elementary (2 months language stay in Spain, courses at University of Zurich 2014-15)